1,650 sq ft first floor B1 office space available to let within a large shared workspace, opening spring 2019

Market is a professional workspace for creative people and innovative businesses. Part of the design-led redevelopment of a prominent Edwardian building, Market offers the opportunity to work and engage, both culturally and holistically, in the heart of south London.

Part of the development, this standalone office is space available to let in 'Cat A' condition, including solid oak flooring, mechanical heating, cooling and ventilation, and use of communal WC, cycle storage and shower facilities.

The unit occupies the rear half of the first floor and features 3.5m ceilings, large windows, a private terrace and exposed brick walls. It shares the building with a range of high quality, independent food, drink and music venues, as well as a large professional shared workspace

The building is situated at the gateway to the Bussey Building and Copeland Park, across the road from Peckham Rye Station, with access to frequent London Overground and National Rail services to south, east and central London.

Highlights

- 3.5m plus ceiling heights
- Private terrace
- Mechanical heating, cooling and ventilation
- High speed broadband
- Bike storage
- Showers and lockers
- Large format french doors and windows
