LOCATION

SHEPHERD COMMERCIAL

GILCHRISTLAND, is situated a short distance from the hamlet of Croalchapel. Limited amenities can be found in the nearby village of Closeburn with the larger town of Thornhill a further 3.0 miles to the north.

The regional town of Dumfries, with a population of around 37,500, lies approximately 13.0 miles to the south and occupies a strategic location at the intersection of the A75, A76 and A701 trunk roads.

The property is located approximately 1.5 miles to the east of the A76 Dumfries to Kilmarnock road and around 22.5 miles south of Junction 14 of the A74(M) motorway, via the A76 & A702.

The property is nestled within an established agricultural smallholding, comprising a mix of residential dwellings and agricultural sheds. The unit is however entirely self-contained and benefits from an unrestricted right of access over the private driveway.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a detached, single storey industrial unit of steel portal frame construction, externally clad with insulated double-skin profile metal sheeting. The roof has been clad with insulated composite sheets incorporating translucent panels, allowing for natural daylighting internally.

Vehicle access is provided by two sliding doors within the front gable elevation, measuring approximately 4.59m (15ft) wide and 4.01m (13ft 1ins) high. A third access door is located within the southern elevation, measuring 5.94m (19ft 5ins) wide and 3.59m (11ft 9ins) high, or thereby.

The frame has been constructed to an internal eaves height of around 3.89m (12ft 9ins). The floor is of solid concrete construction. Internally the property includes two portacabin offices, eight container stores and a raised portacabin welfare block.

Externally there is ample parking / yard space located to the front and south of the unit, surfaced in concrete.
