GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Previously occupied by a furniture retailer for over 20 years the property comprises a steel framed building with an open plan showroom extending to over 2,000 sq ft with extensive glazed frontages to Broad Street and Greenway.

The first floor is also open plan and has a predominantly suspended concrete floor providing a loadbearing storage or additional sales area. Having traded as a furniture store previously the property has an 'E' Use Class Order making it suitable for a wide range of retail and/or office orientated businesses looking for a very prominent trading location in the Crewe area.

LOCATION

The property is very prominently located facing the roundabout where Broad Street and Remer Street meet in what is a predominantly residential location approx. one mile to the north of Crewe town centre. Opposite the property is a Co-op convenience store with adjacent Chatwins Bakers and fish and chip shop. The entrance to the recently constructed Taylor Wimpey 'Stoneley Park' housing estate is also off the same roundabout.
