LOCATION

The North Lanarkshire town of Coatbridge lies 11 miles to the east of Glasgow city centre and 38 miles west of Edinburgh. The recently upgraded M8 motorway, lying at the southern edge of the town provides improved road connectivity across Scotland with the A725 dual carriageway linking the town with the M74 (Junction 5 - Raith). Easy access is afforded to the M73 via the Baillieston Interchange which lies approximately 5 minutes to the west. Mainline rail links are provided with stations at Coatbridge Central, Whifflet, Coatdyke and Sunnyside, whilst the area benefits from regular bus services travelling to Glasgow and the surrounding area.

Waverley Trading Estate is located on Waverley Street within the Northburn industrial area of Coatbridge, approximately one mile north of the town centre.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a former industrial complex which is being reconfigured and refurbished to provide 8 flexible industrial/trade units which will comprise warehouse space in addition to office and WC accommodation, together with vehicular access doors, 3 phase power and communal yardage and car parking. Some units offer the potential for dedicated yards subject to unit size. Units can be combined to meet larger size requirements.
