A community in the heart of Leslieville

Vibrant Leslieville Location

Nestled in the heart of Toronto's east end, 401 Logan Avenue sits within Leslieville—one of the city's trendiest and most dynamic neighborhoods. Surrounded by charming tree-lined streets and historic character, the area offers an inspiring backdrop for any business.

Rich Industrial Heritage

Once a modest 1850s village, Leslieville has evolved into a lively district known for its restored industrial buildings, creative energy, and unique urban charm. At 401 Logan, that heritage is reflected in a setting that blends authenticity with modern appeal.

Cafés, Culture & Community

Steps away from hip cafés, innovative restaurants, and eclectic boutiques, the building offers easy access to everything that makes Leslieville special. From casual patio lunches to cultural hubs like the India Bazaar and Chinatown East, the neighborhood is full of life and diversity.

An Ideal Setting for Modern Businesses

With its strong sense of community and growing population of artists, professionals, and young families, the area surrounding 401 Logan provides the perfect environment for companies seeking both vibrancy and character. It's a place where businesses can thrive and feel at home.

A space for ideas, innovation, and community

The iconic Woods Tower has been a beacon of Leslieville and is just minutes from the downtown core with strategic access to the entire GTA. The former Woods Manufacturing factory building's original heritage features have been preserved, while the interior has been remodeled to create unique studio lofts to inspire and excel growth.

401 Logan is now a thriving, inclusive community and home to over 50 artists and creative enterprises. Our diverse tenants in high-tech, architecture, and design, artist studios/galleries, not-for-profit, and health & fitness create a vibrant ecosystem within the building and bring vital services to the Leslieville neighbourhood.
