LOCATION

Banbury is a busy market town in North Oxfordshire with a population of approx 45,000. It has a strong and diverse economic base of industry, commerce and agriculture. The catchment population includes the wealthy Cotswold towns and villages to the south and west of the town. Banbury's town centre includes a wide range of retailer representation including Marks and Spencers (food and department store), Debenhams, H&M and Gap.

Banbury is popular for town centre living with a number of conversion or new build scheme having taken place for apartments including the upper floors of this property. The town has excellent communication links. The railway station is a 5 to 10 minute walk from the town centre with fast direct links to London Marylebone, Birmingham Mainline Stations, Oxford, Reading and the South Coast. The town also benefits from being situated immediately at Junction 11 of the M40.

The property is located in a good retailing position opposite the pedestrianised Market Place close to Castle Quay Shopping Centre.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property provides regular shaped ground floor retail premises with a very useable lower ground floor. The premises are currently a café trading with A1 use.

The building is Grade II Listed.
