Welcome to

Forty Bank Street

Bring life

Creative. Cultured. Connected.
This vibrant and flexible workspace puts you at the very heart of Canary Wharf.

to work

Forty Bank Street is more than just a place you visit nine to five. It's a place you want to be, to soak up everything the area has to offer. With Canary Wharf fast becoming one of London's most environmentally aware districts and with its strong focus on culture and creativity, Forty Bank Street is a place that will inspire you to bring life to work.

Designed by Cesar Pelli, the celebrated architect behind One Canada Square, Forty Bank Street is the ideal London hub for growing businesses with a forward-thinking attitude and global outlook.

Surrounded by parks and vibrant open spaces, minutes from a world-class array of bars, restaurants and shopping malls and with incredible connections to the whole city and beyond, Forty Bank Street offers the very best of London life – all in one place.

Join the fight against plastic waste.

Canary Wharf is committed to improving the environment. Be part of something positive.

At Forty Bank Street you'll play a key part in the London-leading drive to promote and practice a more sustainable way of living and working. You'll be helping to protect our city for generations to come.

From recycling your coffee cups and water bottles, to grabbing lunch at London's first plastic-free food court, you'll help to support Canary Wharf's ground-breaking 'Making Sustainability Real' programme.

It's thanks to the environmentally aware initiatives in place locally that Canary Wharf is the first commercial centre to be awarded 'Plastic Free Communities' status by Surfers Against Sewage.
