Description

Lombard House is a landmark city centre office building offering bright and spacious accommodation. The space is available to suit your needs and can be provided to a Category A standard, or with your own bespoke fit-out. There are also a number of plug and play suites available.

Location

Highly accessible and strategically located workspace in the heart of the city's commercial district. Positioned directly on Great Charles Street, the building sits close to major business, leisure and retail hubs such as Paradise, Colmore Row and the Jewellery Quarter, making it an ideal base for client meetings and staff amenities. It benefits from excellent public transport links: Birmingham Snow Hill Station and its tram stop are approximately a 5-10 minute walk, while Birmingham New Street Station is around 8-10 minutes. A number of bus routes also serve stops adjacent to the building, offering easy onward connections across the city. This combination of central placement and proximity to multiple transport options ensures Lombard House is well-connected for staff commuting and business travel alike.
