Location

Northwich Business Centre is situated in the centre of Northwich, with prominent frontage to Chester Way. It is close to retail and leisure facilities as well as the proposed Barons Quay town centre redevelopment. The building is also a short walk from Northwich train station, with direct trains to Manchester and Liverpool. Nearby shops include Tesco, Sainsbury's Marks & Spencer and Bratts department store. Northwich has a population of around 40,000 and has been subject to plenty of commercial investment and development over the past 20 years, including schemes at Cheshire Business Park and Gadbrook Office Park. Ambitious plans are also being proposed for the Barons Quay area of the town centre which will bring additional retail and leisure to Northwich.

Northwich itself is located in the heart of Cheshire and is a short drive from both the M6 and M56 motorways, allowing easy access to Manchester, Liverpool and Chester.
