- Prominent position on a main thoroughfare from the train station to Broadgate
- Close to a range of retail and leisure operators
- Available for immediate occupation
- Substantial retail area along with additional storage over two floors
- Available on flexible terms

Location

The property is located in the City Centre within walking distance of the City's main rail and bus stations. This section of Hertford Street offers a pedestrianised walkway used as a primary route from New Union Street, Bull Yard and Warwick Row through to the square of Broadgate.

Retailers in close proximity include CEX, Poundland and Superdrug.

Specifically, the property is located on the west of Hertford Street close to its newly opened walkway onto Broadgate

Description

The property comprises a mid-terrace retail unit over basement and ground floors.

The ground floor benefits from a large retail area along with stores to the rear. The basement provides storage, rear loading, staff kitchen plus a single WC. The retail area benefits from a suspended ceiling, electric heating, ventilated air circulation, laminate floor and strip fluorescent lighting.

The property also benefits from electric roller shutter to the front.
