TRANSPORTATION

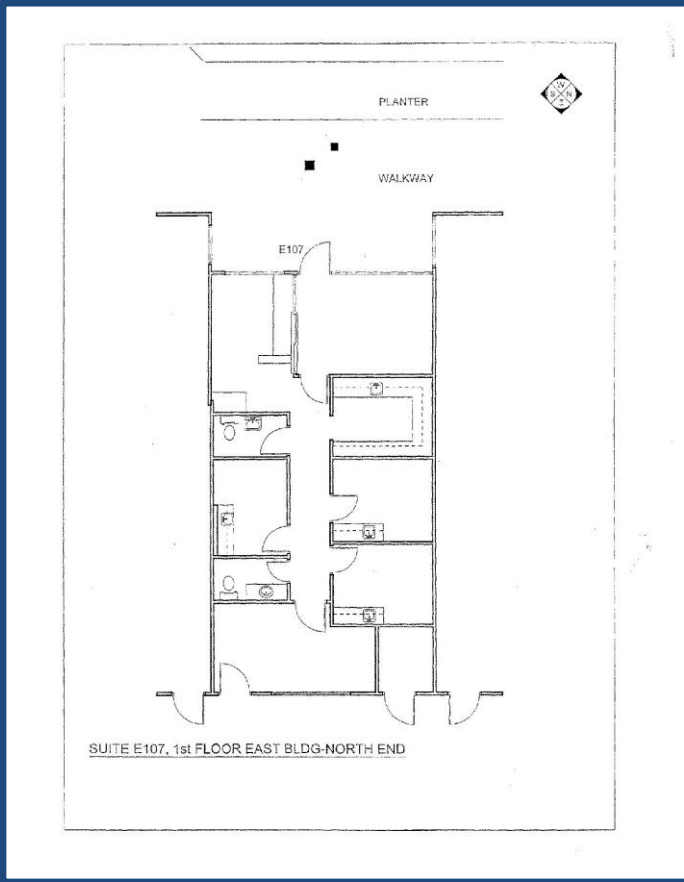

The Santa Ana Regional Transportation Center (SARTC), also known as The Depot, is located 1 mile from the site and is the focal point of transportation in Orange County. It combines Amtrak, Metro link, Orange County Transit Authority, intercity and interstate bus transportation, and airport and taxi services all in one location. The SARTC provides easy access to cities across the county, state, and country. The SARTC has a commuter bicycle locker program with a solar powered bike hut where monthly and annual members can store their bikes in an enclosed and secure room for the day or a short duration. The Santa Ana Regional Transportation Center is the planned eastern terminus of the Orange County Streetcar, a 4-mile (6.4 km) streetcar line to Garden Grove that as of 2016 is being designed and is scheduled to open in 2020. The John Wayne Airport (JWA) is located 7.8 miles (10-minute drive) from the site and is Orange County's international airport. It is the only commercial airport in Orange County serving over 10 million passengers in 2016. John Wayne Airport plays a unique and crucial role in the Orange County community.
