DETAILS

Location

The Vega Building forms part of the Clocktower Estate in South Gyle, West Edinburgh's premier business location. The strengths of the location have attracted many well known office occupiers including RBS, Lloyds, Virgin Media, Tesco Bank and the NHS.

South Gyle is well serviced, with staff amenities in close proximity to the Vega building including a cafe, and sandwich shops. Furthermore, Hermiston Gait Retail Park is within a 10 minutes walk and the Gyle Shopping Centre is within 15 minutes walk, providing access to over 80 high street retailers.

The building occupies a prominent position on the Clocktower Estate, and has exceptional visibility on to 'South Gyle Access,' the major arterial route from the City Centre into South Gyle. This prominence offers occupiers of Vega outstanding branding opportunities onto both the street as well as the tram/train line.

Access & Connectivity

The Vega Building is easily accessed by integrated transport links providing a wide range of options for both staff and clients.

Scotland's Motorway network (M8/M9) is easily accessible via South Gyle Broadway leading to the Gogar Interchange and Edinburgh City Bypass, less than 5 minutes drive from the car park.

The Edinburgh Tram gives quick and comfortable access to Edinburgh International airport and directly into the city centre. Regular services run every 8-10 minutes throughout the day from the Bankhead tramstop, which is only a two minute walk from Vega.

Two rail stations link West Edinburgh to the West and Glasgow (via Edinburgh Park Station) and Fife up to Aberdeen (via South Gyle Station). Both Stations are within 10 minutes walk of Vega, and operate regular services throughout the day.

Ten bus services operate on South Gyle Crescent, providing comprehensive coverage across Edinburgh, including services to Edinburgh International Airport. Services run on average every 10 minutes throughout the day.
