LOCATION:

The subjects are located at the southern end of Netherhill Road within the town of Kirktown. Kirktown itself is located immediately south of the village of St Fergus which lies approximately 4 miles north of Peterhead and approximately 12 miles south east of Fraserburgh along the A90 Peterhead to Fraserburgh trunk road.

The Ordnance Survey extract is for identification purposes only.

DESCRIPTION:

The subjects comprise of a modern detached office building with a rear storage unit. The main office building itself is of block construction predominately rendered with a pitched roof over clad in tile. The entrance to the property is by means of a part timber part glazed entrance door leading into an entrance hallway.

Internally within the offices the floors are of timber design with carpet covering and walls and ceilings are lined in plasterboard with a paint finish. Artificial lighting is provided by means of fluorescent strip light fittings with natural lighting provided by a series of timber casement double glazed windows. Male and female W.C facilities along with staff kitchenette are located within the office building.

Located to the rear of this building there is an adjoining storage building. The storage building itself is of traditional stone construction pointed externally with a pitched roof. Within the store the floors are of concrete design with the walls of basic stonework.
