SITUATION

St Thomas Street lies within proximity of London Bridge and benefits from constant pedestrian movement throughout the day and evening.

The surrounding area has seen substantial investment and regeneration in recent years, underpinned by the transformation of London Bridge Station and the delivery of major mixed-use developments, most notably The Shard.

The location is well established as both a daytime business destination and a thriving evening and weekend leisure hub.

'Located on St Thomas Street in the heart of Southwark, immediately adjacent to London Bridge Station.'

DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of London Bridge, this Grade II* listed former church dates back to 1703. Designed by Thomas Cartwright, Master Mason to Sir Christopher Wren.

The property represents a significant piece of English Baroque architecture. Historically serving as the parish church of St Thomas and later the Chapter House for Southwark Cathedral, the building is perhaps most famous for its attic level, which housed the hospital's original "Herb Garret" and the oldest surviving surgical theatre in Europe.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation provides a large open-plan trading area with full-height ceilings, feature lighting, a central bar, stage area, mezzanine gallery with secondary bar, commercial kitchen, storage accommodation and customer facilities.

Restaurant and Bar – Amazing Grace

The commercial accommodation is arranged as follows:

Floor Level	Area (Sq ft)	Area (Sq m)
Lower Ground	1,974	183.39
Ground Floor	2,375	220.64
Mezzanine	1,023	95.04
Total Commercial Area (GIA)	5,372	499.07

TENANCY

Amazing Grace (Commercial)

The live music restaurant and bar is let to Amazing Grace St Thomas Ltd for a term of 15 years from 1 January 2023, expiring 31 December 2037, with a tenant-only break option on 31 December 2032.

The current passing rent is £341,274 per annum.

The rent is reviewed annually in line with RPI, subject to a collar of 1% and a cap of 3%.

A turnover rent provision applies above the base rent, subject to lease terms (details available on request).

Amazing Grace St Thomas Ltd operates the Amazing Grace brand, a well-established live music, food and beverage concept operating from prominent central London locations.

The tenant has invested significant capital into the fit-out of the premises and has successfully repositioned the building as a destination live entertainment venue.

Old Operating Theatre Museum

The museum is held on a long lease for a term of 125 years from 14 December 2012 at a peppercorn rent.

The Belfry – Residential Apartment

The Belfry is a unique two-bedroom residential apartment arranged over approximately 1,053 sq ft within the former bell tower and accessed via a passenger lift and spiral staircase.

The apartment is currently let on an AST and is available by separate negotiation.

TENURE

The property is held by way of a long leasehold interest from Guy's and St Thomas' Charity for a term of 250 years from 7 September 2009, expiring in September 2259, leaving approximately 233 years unexpired.

A ground rent of £10,000 per annum, reviewed every 20 years. The ground rent increases by £10,000 at each review up to year 120, and thereafter by £20,000 at each review. The next review date is 7 September 2029.
