Location

The property is situated on Derby Road (A6), one of Loughborough's principal arterial routes, approximately to the north-west of Loughborough town centre. Loughborough benefits from excellent transport connections, with Junction 23 of the M1 motorway located approximately 4 miles to the west, providing convenient access to Leicester, Nottingham, Derby and the wider Midlands motorway network. Derby Road provides a well-connected position with a mixture of commercial premises, retail occupiers and residential properties in the surrounding area. Loughborough town centre provides a comprehensive range of shopping, leisure, professional and public amenities, whilst Loughborough railway station offers regular services to Leicester, Nottingham and London St Pancras. The location therefore provides a good balance of accessibility, prominence and proximity to the town's established commercial and residential areas.
