LOCATION

Arthur Street is located in the Leith district of Edinburgh only a short distance from Leith Walk and less than 1 mile from the city centre. The entrance to Arthur Street is virtually opposite Dalmeny Street but can also be accessed from Pilrig Street.

The subjects form part of a large commercial block bordered on either side by modern residential developments. Leith Walk provides a wide range of amenities including cafes, bars, restaurants and hot food takeaways.

Public transport is widely available in the locality with car parking available on surrounding streets.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise two separate studio spaces situated at first floor level arranged on either side of a main entrance stairwell. A car garage/MOT centre is situated beneath the studios.

Studio 1, to the left of the stairwell, provides an open plan studio with modern LED lighting and a mezzanine area which is ideal for viewing performances. There are two store areas and a small WC. There's sufficient space for potentially installing a seating area and stage.

Studio 2, meanwhile, provides excellent space for a dance/fitness/yoga studio with full height mirrors running the length of the room. The space also benefits from a changing room, store and male and female WC facilities.

ACCOMMODATION

According to our measurement survey the subjects comprise the following net internal areas:

Studio 1: 220 sq m (2,375 sq ft)
(including mezzanine)

Studio 2: 127 sq m (1,369 sq ft)
