KEY FEATURES

- LOCK UP SHOPS TO LET
- VERY BUSY LOCATION
- AVAILABLE AS A SINGLE, TWO OR FOUR UNITS
- CLOSE TO STATION
- PARKING NEARBY
- CONVENIENT FOR A40/A406

LOCATION

The property is prominently situated on Ealing Road, Wembley, a busy and well-established commercial thoroughfare serving a large and densely populated catchment area. Ealing Road is a recognised retail and commercial destination, benefiting from a diverse mix of independent retailers, restaurants, cafés and service businesses which generates strong levels of footfall and passing trade.

Alperton Underground Station (Piccadilly Line) is within easy walking distance, providing convenient connections into Central London and the wider London Underground network, while the A406 North Circular Road and A40 are also readily accessible. The surrounding area includes a substantial residential population alongside numerous established businesses, helping to provide a consistent local customer base. With its combination of strong transport links, good visibility, high residential density and established commercial activity, the location provides an attractive base for a wide variety of retail, leisure, professional and service-based occupiers.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises two lock up shops which are available as one large unit, single units or as half shops. Each unit will be available with its own kitchen and WC facilities. Individual requirements can be discussed at an early stage as division of the units has yet to be started. Capped services will be provided.

A variety of uses will be considered, subject to planning.
