LOCATION

MOFFAT, which has a population of around 2,500, lies in the Annandale district of the Dumfries & Galloway Council area and is a former Spa town, now recognised as a popular tourist destination.

Dumfries is the region's principal settlement and is located 21 miles to the south west.

The town is bypassed by the A74(M) motorway which provides excellent road links to the north and south. Travelling distance to Glasgow is around 59 miles with Carlisle around 44 miles.

The town is also located at the intersection of the A701 tourist route to Edinburgh, which lies some 53 miles to the north, and the A708 road to Galashiels, approximately 41 miles to the north east.

The property is located on the southern side of Well Street, a short distance from its junction with Moffat High Street.

Well Street is considered an extension to the principal High Street shopping parade. Neighbouring occupiers include a mix of retailers, professional offices, licensed hotels and B&Bs.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a ground floor retail unit, with basement storage area, forming part of a mid-terraced, two storey Category 'C' listed building. The remainder of the building comprises a self-contained residential flat which is in separate ownership.

The main walls are of stone construction, with painted external finish, surmounted by a pitched and slated roof.

The unit has a traditional shop frontage comprising central customer entrance door together with four three-quarter height timber casement display windows.

The main retail area has a laminate floor covering, lined and timber tongue & groove walls with papered / painted finish, together with retail slat-wall cladding.

The retail fit-out also includes fixed perimeter rails, freestanding racks / display cabinets and a glazed point-of-sale counter.
