This phenomenal historic building was originally the Anheuser Busch beer depot. Rehabbed in 2006, the lower level was once an art gallery and since been home to other commercial tenants and is now available for Lease. The lower/commercial space that is available is approximately 1,500 square feet, and is suitable for many types of businesses and uses. The building is highly visible on Jefferson St, and the lot included provides 40+ parking spaces.
