CONCEPTUAL RENDERINGS

OVERVIEW

COURTHOUSE WEST is Stafford County's newest premier retail development, strategically positioned at the brand-new Courthouse Road diamond interchange along I-95. Developed by Norton Scott, this project offers unparalleled access and visibility in the fastest-growing retail corridor in Stafford, Virginia.

The Courthouse Road corridor has quickly emerged as a leading destination for national retailers, anchored by nearby tenants such as Publix, Starbucks, Sheetz, Chick-fil-A, McDonald's, and Wawa. This momentum is fueled by strong residential growth, including Embrey Mill, a master-planned community with over 2,000 homes delivered, and dozens of additional neighborhoods under development.

Stafford County also benefits from significant economic drivers, including new data center development, proximity to Marine Corps Base Quantico, and a workforce supported by both Northern Virginia and the Washington, D.C. metro area.

Courthouse West provides flexible opportunities for a wide range of retail, dining, and service uses. The project includes availability for a 20,000–30,000 SF anchor box for ground lease or build-to-suit, offering direct visibility to I-95 and serving as a marquee opportunity for a regional or national tenant. Additional pad sites for lease are ideally suited for full-service restaurants, medical, fast-casual dining, and specialty retail.

Prominent monument signage along Courthouse Road further enhances visibility and branding for tenants.
