

The Developer

Founded in 1997 by Niels Kreipke, Desert Viking Development is a leading real estate development firm based in Arizona and recognized for investment in the restoration of historic properties, adaptive reuse projects and ground up construction developments. As a company, Desert Viking has acquired and/or rehabilitated over 20 National Register Historic properties and completed numerous mixed-use projects throughout the Phoenix metro area. Renowned for their ability to revitalize time-honored neighborhood structures while maintaining the characteristics that make each neighborhood unique and sought-after, Desert Viking's portfolio includes more than a half dozen buildings in Historic Downtown Chandler, as well as the Lamar and Guilding Star buildings in Phoenix and the historic Gold Spot neighborhood center located within the Roosevelt Row District at 3rd Avenue and Roosevelt. With a vast array of experience in all facets of real estate including commercial, retail and residential properties, Desert Viking has become an industry leader in the Phoenix real estate market.

The Real Estate Team
