The city of Fillmore is a small city in Ventura County, California, with a population of 17,572. The city is nestled in the Santa Clara River Valley between Santa Paula and Valencia. Despite its small size, Fillmore offers plenty of activities and community events that reflect its heritage and charm. Outdoors enthusiasts enjoy nearby Sespe Creek and the Fillmore Fish Hatchery, which provides educational experiences and natural scenery. Historic attractions include the Fillmore Historical Museum with restored railroad buildings and local history exhibits, and the Fillmore Towne Theatre, a century-old landmark that hosts community arts and performances. The Fillmore Farmers Market showcases local produce and artisans on weekends, while annual celebrations like Fillmore Family Fun Day bring residents together for games, entertainment, and downtown festivities. The town also hosts seasonal events such as the Flower Show, Fall Festival, and Christmas Parade, which highlight local culture and community spirit.
