Description

A well-positioned freehold commercial investment opportunity, comprising a ground floor lock-up unit within an established neighbourhood retail parade in Caversham Park Village. The premises extend to approximately 815 sq ft and include a restaurant seating area, fully fitted commercial kitchen, and customer WC facilities, together with rear access, fire exit, and bin storage.

The property is currently let to a successful and established Nepalese restaurant, providing a steady and reliable income stream. The lease is on a full repairing and insuring (FRI) basis, offering minimal landlord responsibilities.

This represents an attractive, low-management investment suited to private investors seeking a secure income-producing asset within a well-served residential catchment area, benefiting from nearby parking and consistent local footfall.

Location

The property is situated within a well-established neighbourhood retail parade in Caversham Park Village, Reading, serving a densely populated residential catchment. The parade benefits from a variety of local occupiers and a large communal car park, providing convenient customer parking and steady day-to-day footfall.
