Albert House is a building that's hard to miss. There is a bar amongst the private offices, co-working spaces (shared working spaces), meeting, event and conferencing spaces as well as a fitness studio, loads of bike storage and a screening room.

If you've ever hit Old St roundabout, you'll know Albert (affectionately known as Big Al in the office). It looms over Old St just as you turn off the roundabout into Shoreditch, on the right hand side, around 40 yards from the tube station. Whilst the existing blue framing to the façade was arguably striking, it hasn't stayed. The glass and steel cladding system actually hides an original 1930's warehouse so we felt a sense of duty to bring back that character.
