Stoke United Reformed Church, Harefield Road, COVENTRY CV2 4BT

5,770 SQ FT (536 SQ M) GIA on approx. 0.34 acres

- Expansive former church premises suitable for a variety of uses or development (STPP)
- Attractive façade amongst a number of original features
- Excellent yard and parking area to the rear of the site
- Close to a range of residential and commercial occupiers

Location

The property is located approximately 1.5 miles to the east of Coventry City Centre just off the A4600 Walsgrave Road. The area is predominantly residential although along Walsgrave Road there is a considerable retail offering. It also acts as one of the main arterial routes from the city centre.

Neighbouring the subject is the Sacred Heart Catholic Church and adjacent to that a limited amount of industrial and office premises.

Specifically the property is located on the western side of Harefield Road which runs from north to south from Walsgrave Road to Binley Road.

Description

The building offers an attractive brick built former church building primarily under a series of pitched tiled roofs. The building frontage offers a prominent stepped façade complete with a centre feature window and a small bell tower.

Internally the property is arranged in a number of sections complicit with its previous use. The property is in need of refurbishment but could lend itself to a variety of uses.

Externally, the property benefits from a good size surfaced yard/parking area. The site as a whole occupies approximately 0.34 acres of which approximately 0.19 acres is occupied by the buildings.
