Location & Description

Plymouth is the largest economic centre in the South West with nearly 7,000 businesses generating £4.5bn of Gross Value Added. Listed as Britain's 14th largest city, the largest city in Devon and Cornwall and one of the largest regional centres in the South West, Plymouth has a residential population 260,000 (which is projected to rise within 10 years to 300,000), a student population of 50,000 and a workforce of nearly 170,000. As Britain's "Ocean City", it has the largest naval base in Western Europe and is home to luxury yacht builder Princess Yachts. Access to superfast broadband puts Plymouth in the UK's Top 10 cities for broadband connectivity. Plymouth not only delivers a skilled talent pool of labour, but does so in one of the most attractive rural and marine environments. Plymouth also benefits from a railway station on the main Penzance to Paddington line and a cross channel ferry terminal.

Devonshire Meadows is situated on the northern outskirts of Plymouth, being accessed via Tamerton Road from the Belliver/Roborough roundabout on the A386 Tavistock Road. Access to the A38 Expressway is within 3 miles to the south giving good communications to South East Cornwall, Exeter and the M5.
