LOCATION Overview

Town of Aylmer

The Town of Aylmer is located in Southwestern Ontario and offers strategic positioning between Toronto and Windsor and offers access to the U.S. Border in approximately a two-hour drive-time. Additionally, Highway 3 passes through the Town and Aylmer is at the midpoint between Buffalo, New York and Detroit, Michigan. The Town is approximately 20 minutes south of Highway 401 and is located southwest of the City of London. Aylmer is in Elgin County and is one of 7 local municipalities in Elgin, the largest of which, the City of St. Thomas, is located approximately a 10-minute drive-time from Aylmer. The Town of Aylmer has an estimated population of 8,847 people in 2023 with an average income of $89,633 in 2023 (source: Sitewise, Q1, 2024). The top 3 industries by Labour Force are Manufacturing (18.5%), Retail Trade (11.5%), Health Care and Social Assistance (9.3%) (source: Sitewise, Q1, 2024).

Aylmer provides a Town atmosphere with all the required modern residential amenities, including grocery, restaurants, services, shopping and recreational opportunities. Amenities include the East Elgin Community Complex, Parks and Splash Pad, Clovermead Adventure Farm, Farmers Markets, Aylmer Wildlife Management Areas, and many other unique areas and businesses to explore. The Ontario Police College is also located in the Town of Aylmer and provides learning opportunities for new and seasoned police officers.
