LOCATION

The subjects are located in the Leith area of Edinburgh. More specifically, the subjects are located on the east side of Constitution Street near its junction with Queen Charlotte Street, approximately 1½ miles to the north of Edinburgh City Centre. Constitution Street forms one of the main arterial routes connecting Leith with Leith Walk, which provides a direct link to Edinburgh City Centre.

The subjects lie in a mixed commercial and residential locality with good transport links to and from Edinburgh City Centre.

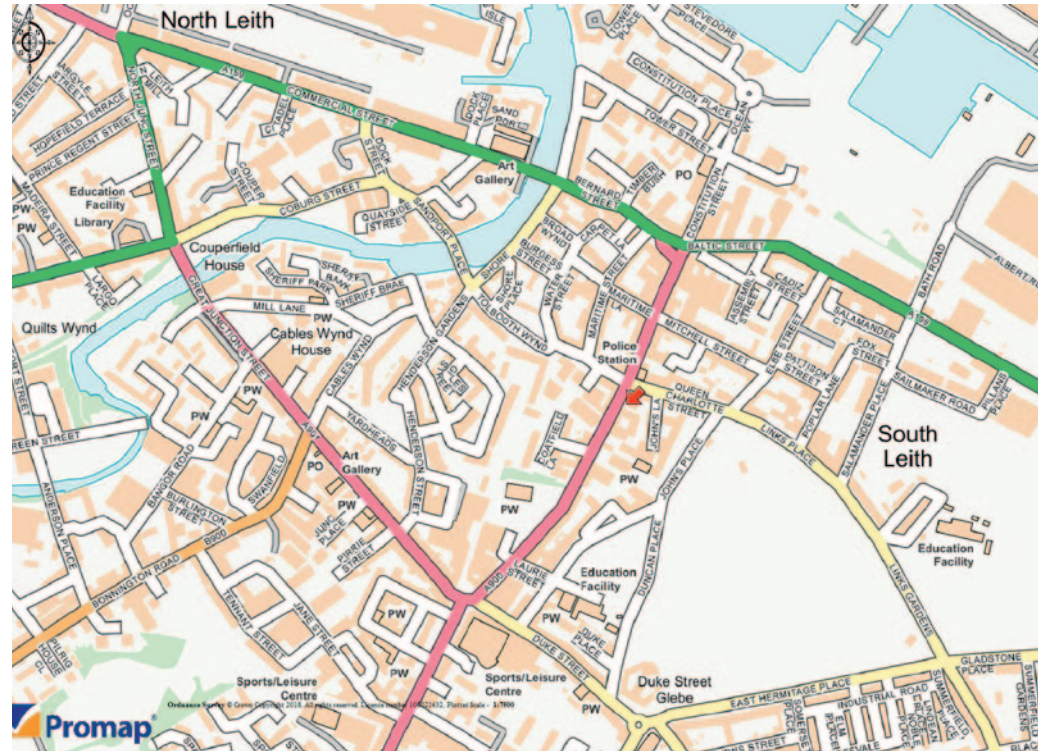

Surrounding properties include The Chop House, Compass Bar, The Hideaway and Leith Police Station.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise office accommodation contained within a traditional, stone built property arranged over basement, ground and upper levels held under a pitched, timber and slated roof incorporating flat sections presumably clad in bituminous felt.

The property is accessed via an entrance door front Constitution Street, leading to the reception area with various internal corridors and staircase leading off.

Internally, the subjects provide cellular office space at ground, first and second floor levels, together with ancillary toilet and tea preparation areas. Basement storage is also provided within the accommodation accessed via stone stairs, whilst at third floor level there is also additional storage space which is not currently utilised.

ACCOMMODATION

We have calculated the gross internal area of the subjects to extend to approximately 672.88 sq m / 7,240 sq ft.

PRICE

Offers over £750,000 are invited.

RATEABLE VALUE

In accordance with the Scottish Assessors Association we have been advised that the subjects have a rateable value of £47,500. The unified business rate is presently set at £0.466, excluding water and sewage, which are levied separately.
