+ CAR PARKING

The subject property is located to the south of Wakefield City Centre lying upon the northern side of South Parade and having a rear frontage to George Street. This central location affords the property excellent access both on foot and by car to the City's nearby amenities as well as Westgate Railway Station, which in turn provides direct links to both the regional and national conurbations including London Kings Cross. Access to principle arterial routes is similarly good: the A61 is located just ¼ mile to the east of the property; whilst the A638, A642 and A636 Denby Dale roads are within a similar distance to the south and west.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a most substantial four-storey (including basement) Grade II Listed Georgian red brick former town house within a terrace of similar properties located within the South Parade Conservation Area.

Whilst originally constructed for residential purposes, in more recent decades the properties within the terrace have been used for a wider variety of uses including offices. The subject property has been both sympathetically modernised and substantially extended. Internally, the property is arranged to provide a series of well proportioned private and general office areas, whilst the basement provides for a large file store fitted out with specialist racking. Toilet and kitchen facilities are provided.

SERVICES

All mains services are connected or available. The property has the benefit of a gas fired central heating system within each element.
