Location

The historic city of Durham is a cathedral city in the North East of England and the county town of Durham. The city lies on the River Wear, 18 miles (28 km) south of Newcastle, 22 miles (35 km) north of Darlington and 30 miles (48 km) south west of Sunderland.

Durham benefits from excellent road communications located in close proximity to the A690 and the A1M, connecting the city to the national motorway network and providing easy access to Newcastle to the north and London to the south.

Durham train station is on the main East Coast rail line from London to Edinburgh which can be reached in 2 hours 47 minutes and 1 hour 41 minutes respectively. On an average weekday there are over 100 trains travelling from Durham to Newcastle with a journey time of 12 minutes.

Durham is located 30 minutes' drive from Newcastle International Airport and about 40 minutes' drive from Teesside International Airport. Both airports provide a range of international and domestic flights.

DURHAM HAS AN ABOVE AVERAGE PROPORTION OF ADULTS WITHIN SOCIAL AB GROUP.

Demographics & Retailing In Durham

Durham has a catchment population of approximately 111,000 and comprises a particularly high proportion of young adults aged 15-24. The Durham area contains an above average proportion of adults within the most affluent AB social group.

Durham castle and cathedral are designated by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site which assists in attracting tourists to Durham every year. 3.12 million people visited in 2021 generating £237.93 million in visitor expenditure. The number of people employed as a direct result of tourism is 2,861 people.

The central shopping area is compact and development is constrained by the historic nature of the city and the River Wear. This constraint on supply provides a strong opportunity for rental growth in the city centre. Zone A retail rents have increased from rebased levels, following the pandemic. Retail floor space provision is estimated at 530,000 sq ft and is focused on Riverwalk Shopping Centre, Prince Bishops Shopping Centre, Silver Street, Market Place and North Road. The Land of Prince Bishops Shopping Centre is in discussions for redevelopment which should further constrain supply of retail units in Durham.

DURHAM CITY IN 2024 GENERATED £1.38 BILLION IN VISITOR EXPENDITURE REPRESENTING A 11.7% INCREASE ON 2023.

Covenant Information

Volunt Ltd is a franchise of T4 Bubble Tea. T4 are one of the UK's most recognised bubble tea operators with over 60 stores open and trading in the UK. Volunt Ltd is a new company who have provided a 6-month rent deposit.

The residential uppers are secured on short term AST's to private individuals, all of whom provide deposits and have parental guarantors. Durham University students' demand for accommodation within the city centre significantly outweighs supply. The residential flat lets quickly upon coming to market.
