Picton House

Picton House comprises two distinct buildings, one a historic listed property, the second a more recent addition dating from the early 1980s.

The listed building provides office accommodation on ground, first and second floors and includes the main entrance and reception area for the whole property.

The more modern building provides open plan and cellular office space on ground, first and second floors and the buildings are interlinked at both ground and first floor levels.

There is a small area of storage in the basement of the older building.

Picton House is prominently located on the west side of the High Street, on the south-west edge of Kingston upon Thames town centre.

The building is located within an approximate 10 minute walk of Kingston mainline railway station which provides regular train services into London Waterloo with a journey time of approximately 30 minutes.

There are regular bus services to and from Kingston Town Centre across south and south west London and into Surrey.
