

Suite 610
1,400 RSF
Available
April 1, 2017

The floor plan shows a large rectangular room with a thick black border. Inside, there are several smaller rectangular areas defined by thinner black lines. A door is located on the right wall, opening into a hallway. Another door is located on the bottom wall, opening into a smaller room. There are also several windows indicated by small black squares along the walls. The text is centered in the upper left portion of the main room.