Location

26 Smithfield Street sits in the heart of Farringdon, a vibrant and well-connected area of central London. Farringdon and Barbican stations are a short walk away, providing access to the Underground, Thameslink, and Elizabeth Line. The surrounding area is renowned for its lively food and drink scene, with acclaimed restaurants, bars and public houses.

Opposite the property, the new London Museum is set to open in 2026 following significant investment to transform the historic market buildings. The project is expected to boost footfall and further enhance the area's profile as a cultural and commercial destination.

Nearby Restaurant / Bar include Karaoke Box, Bishops Finger, The Fable, Farringdon Tap, Smiths of Smithfield, Bounce Farringdon and many more.

Accommodation

The property is a three-storey building with a rooftop terrace.

The ground floor is arranged as a restaurant with seating for around 60 covers, a bar, cold storage, customer WCs, and storage. The basement offers further trading space with a central bar, stage area, storage, and customer toilets.

The first floor houses a fully fitted commercial kitchen with extraction, drainage, a cold store, and trading space with a bar for around 60 covers.

The second floor offers further trading space for approximately 60 covers, a secondary kitchen, customer WCs, and staff/office facilities.
