LOCATION

Falkirk is a large town in the Central Lowlands of Scotland, historically within the county of Stirlingshire. It lies in the Forth Valley, 23.3 miles north-west of Edinburgh and 20.5 miles north-east of Glasgow.

Falkirk has a resident population of 34,570 according to the 2008 census. The population of the town had risen over the past decade, making it the 20th most populous settlement in Scotland. Falkirk is the main town and administrative centre of the Falkirk council area, which has an overall population of 156,800 and inholds the nearby towns of Grangemouth, Bo'ness, Denny, Larbert and Stenhousemuir.

The subjects are located on the southern side of High Street between its junctions with Cow Wynd and Callendar Riggs. High Street forms the main pedestrianised retail area within the town centre and as such would be considered a prime retail pitch.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a mid terraced two storey building of stone construction with a rendered finish surmounted by a pitched and slated roof. The property has formerly been used as a Money Shop and as such benefits from class 2 use although the property is also suitable for class 1 use.

Internally the property provides good sized front sales area with large double windowed frontage, office area, kitchen/staff area and two w.c's.

PLANNING

All queries in relation to redevelopment/reconfiguration of the subjects should be addressed to Falkirk Council Planning Department.
