Description

This centre is situated in Chineham Park, Basingstoke, a well-established business park on the M3/M4 corridor. The mature parkland landscape creates a natural and secure setting with a relaxed atmosphere where people are happy to walk, run and cycle both during and after the working day. The broad appeal of the park is reflected in the diversity of its business community. It is home to more than 50 UK and international companies from a wide range of industries, employing over 3,500 people. Many companies come to Chineham Park to be part of a business community with regular social and networking events throughout the year where commercial advantages include opportunities for collaboration and supply chain benefits. Basingstoke is a prosperous town and major economic centre, with an above-average standard of living and low unemployment.

It is the location for the UK headquarters of many world-class companies across a wide range of business sectors.
