Situated on one of the principal routes into the city centre, the property benefits from excellent visibility and accessibility, surrounded by an established commercial area comprising offices, retail and leisure uses.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises an octagonal, link-detached office building arranged over three levels. The building is of steel frame construction with brick-faced elevations and a steel-framed mansard roof. It dates from the early 1980s and originally formed part of the Royal London Insurance headquarters complex.

Internally, the ground and first floors provide a combination of open-plan and partitioned offices, meeting rooms and ancillary facilities, arranged around a central core incorporating a staircase and a document hoist. There is also a passenger lift (to first floor only), which is not currently operational. Finishes include raised access floors, suspended ceilings with recessed lighting, air conditioning (not tested) and double-glazed windows. The second floor is currently used solely for file storage.
