Description

The property forms part of a terrace of 4 units of steel portal frame with elevations in part brick and part profile cladding with steel profile cladding to the roof. There is a good sized forecourt car parking and loading area. The property has been extensively fitted out to include mezzanine showroom and office areas together with ground floor and mezzanine storage areas.

Location

The property is situated in the popular A10 Great Cambridge Road area on the east side of Baird Road in close proximity to Enfield Retail Park with many multiple retailers. The A10 provides ease of access to Jct 25 of the M25 to the north and A406 North Circular Road to the south. Transport links are good with Southbury overground station being close by providing frequent service to London Liverpool Street. Numerous bus routes also serve the area.
