The utilities are heat/air and electricity. Water comes with the Complex. The heat and air are controlled by Nest thermostats.

Nest thermostats are energy efficient. Aside from changing the temperature at the thermostat a Nest can be controlled over the internet. From home or your phone you can change the temperature so the office temperature is the right temperature by the time you arrive. You can connect over the internet to change after you leave.

There are many office layouts; some with large rooms, some with smaller rooms.

All the people in the Complex have access to the Courtyard. The five buildings of the Complex form a Courtyard.

The Courtyard is a professionally designed garden. There is a screened Gazebo that has a table and chairs. There are trellises and benches. The Courtyard is a perfect place to sit and relax or to have a private-out-of-office conversation. The Courtyard is outside so it's always open - come check out the Courtyard yourself.

Each office has it's own mailbox. Each office can appear on the Eastbrook Complex Okemos Road Sign.

Some of the office furniture can be loaned. While not part of a lease; there is enough furniture in the offices that some may be available for use. There are conference tables, office desks, book shelves, file cabinets, etc.
