7 LOADING BAYS

The site plan illustrates a large industrial facility at 11 Taft Road, Totowa, NJ. The central feature is a large, light-gray building with a complex footprint. To the left of the building, there is a parking area with 11 loading bays. Above the building, a larger parking area is designated with 30 loading bays. To the right of the building, there are two more parking areas: one with 3 loading bays and another with 7 loading bays. The site is bordered by a dashed line, and a road is visible on the right side. The plan also shows various internal structures, including smaller buildings and parking lots, and a north arrow is located in the bottom right corner.
