Vornado Realty Trust is a preeminent owner, manager and developer of real estate with a portfolio including some of the world's most iconic properties. In Manhattan, Vornado has ownership and management interest in over 30 million square feet, including over 20 million square feet of office and over 3 million square feet of street retail, primarily located in the key retail corridors of Madison Avenue, Fifth Avenue, Times Square, Union Square, Penn Plaza/Herald Square and SoHo. Among Vornado's well-known properties are One Penn Plaza and Two Penn Plaza, which sit atop Penn Station and Madison Square Garden; 1540 and 1535 Broadway, which encompass the two retail block-fronts that bookend the Bowtie in Times Square; the towering 555 California Street, known as Bank of America Tower, in the heart of San Francisco's financial district; and the historic 3.7 million square foot theMART in the River North district of Chicago.

Drawing on its best-in-class development capability, Vornado is a distinguished contributor to the urban landscape. Select projects in New York City include the celebrated 1.3-million-square-foot, mixed-use tower at 731 Lexington Avenue, designed by Pelli Clarke Pelli Architects and home to both Bloomberg L.P.'s world headquarters and Beacon Court, one of the world's highest-valued residential condominiums. Currently underway is the development of 220 Central Park South, a luxury, 950-foot super tall residential condominium tower with unobstructed views of Central Park that is the first ground-up development along Central Park South in four decades. Vornado takes pride in its longstanding relationships across a diverse tenant base that includes well-recognized industry leaders, blue-chip financial institutions and the world's leading creative and technology companies.

Vornado is the real estate industry leader in sustainability policy, programs and results, owning over 13 million square feet of LEED Certified space in Manhattan, with nearly 9 million square feet certified at the Gold level in 2016. Vornado has won numerous prestigious awards throughout the years and was most recently recognized by NAREIT as the top performing Diversified REIT, receiving the "Leader in the Light" distinction for the seventh year in a row.

EDWARD J. MINSKOFF EQUITIES, INC.

Edward J. Minskoff Equities, Inc. was founded by Edward J. Minskoff in May of 1987. The primary objective of EJME is to own, develop and manage institutional quality real estate in major urban centers. Selectively, EJME also develops high-end residential properties. It is the corporate policy of EJME to oversee all phases of its properties, including design/development, management, leasing and financing.

EJME has assembled an in-house construction, management and leasing staff that monitors all phases of work of each development project. Through the supervision of its in-house personnel, EJME has been able to establish a national presence as a full-service real estate company. EJME has extensive experience in all aspects of commercial property and facilities management and has provided services for a diversified roster of landlords and tenants.
