ABOUT EDGECOMB/WISCASSET

Wiscasset and Edgecomb are delightful, small vacation towns seated in Maine's Mid-Coast region, home to village inns, restaurants, and a variety of shops. These towns attract tourists for their reign of historical architecture, including Castle Tucker, the Lincoln County Museum and Jail, and Fort Edgecomb.

Wiscasset and Edgecomb are also popular antiquing spots. Wiscasset is your corridor to Boothbay and the outlying Five Islands. As you pass through downtown Wiscasset, you will see why it is called "the prettiest village in Maine." Wiscasset is also home to the famous Red's Eats with its beloved lobster rolls that folks line up for around the block, fortunately they have a lovely view of the Sheepscot River while they wait. Wiscasset is home to an old-fashioned country store and Maine Heritage Village.

Edgecomb is an artist's inspiration; this Maine town is full of pottery sheds and galleries - local Maine artists selling their handcrafted wares. Lodging in Wiscasset or Edgecomb along the Sheepscot River provides easy access for day trips along Route 1 up to Boothbay Harbor, Camden, Rockport, and Rockland, and down to Freeport.
