Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given, that guide is the minimum price at which (or range of prices within which) the seller might be prepared to sell on the date on which the guide price (or range of prices) is published. The guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price.
2. The guide price may be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. The latest published guide price (or range of prices) is displayed on our website and you are advised to check the website regularly for updates.

  - additional costs and fees charged by the seller or third parties that might apply to some Lots and/or some buyers.
5. If a guide price is listed as "TBA", it means no guide price has been set at present. Please do not call our office about this - the guide price, or range of prices, will be published online immediately it becomes available and you should check the auction website regularly for updates.

Reserve Prices

6. The reserve price is the minimum price at which the Lot can be sold.
7. Whilst every effort is made to ensure that the advertised guide prices are up-to-date, it is possible that the reserve price set for any Lot may exceed the previously quoted guide price. This is because the seller may fix the final reserve price just before the Lot is offered for sale.
