

FREEHOLD TOWN CENTRE BUILDING FOR SALE

1 Castle Street & 2-4 Parson Lane, Clitheroe BB7 2BT

LOCATION

Clitheroe is a town in the county of Lancashire, located approximately 32 miles north of Manchester and 45 miles northwest of Leeds.

Clitheroe Interchange railway station is on the north western edge of the town centre, and there are multiple bus links accessible along Castle Street. The junction to the A59, which provides a link east to Yorkshire and south to the M65 motorway, is c.1 mile south of the town.

SITUATION

The property is situated on Castle Street with return frontage on Parson Lane. The property is within the prime retail pitch which extends along Castle Street, facing Castlegate.

Situated in the centre of this historic town, the property benefits from a prominent position, with nearby occupiers include HSBC, Costa, Boots and Age UK. Other occupiers in proximity to the subject include independent estate agents and local retailers.

DESCRIPTION:

The subject property comprises a building of three storeys plus basement, of stone construction set under a pitched tiled roof.

The main unit comprises the ground floor banking hall with ancillary offices to the rear, first floor ancillary space including kitchen and WCs, and basement vault. The rear elements of the first floor and second floor are currently unused.

2-4 Parson Lane is separately demised (indicated in blue on the GOAD plan), benefitting from access directly onto Parson Lane, and benefits from glazed shop frontage in part.
