The image shows a multi-level office environment. In the foreground, there's a lounge area with dark blue modular sofas and two white Wishbone-style chairs. A small white table with a drink sits between the chairs. To the left, a bar area features a blue wall and a row of light-colored wooden stools. The background is filled with glass-walled meeting rooms and open-plan office spaces. The ceiling is industrial, with exposed ductwork, air vents, and track lighting. A large red rounded rectangle is overlaid in the center, containing white text.
