

An aerial map of a residential area. At the top, a road is labeled "FIELDS ERTEL RD". Below this road, there are two main lots. The lot on the left is labeled "9393" and contains a large, irregularly shaped house with a complex roofline and several smaller structures or porches. The lot on the right is labeled "9401" and contains a large, rectangular house. To the left of the "9393" lot, there is a large area labeled "EE". Below the "9393" lot, there is a large area labeled "E" with several small, rectangular structures or porches. The map shows various streets, including a main road running horizontally at the top and several streets running vertically and diagonally. There are also some smaller, unlabeled areas and structures scattered throughout the map.
