LOCATION

Burghead is an attractive coastal village situated on the Moray Firth coastline in Moray, approximately 8 miles north-west of Elgin and 9 miles west of Lossiemouth. The village has a population of approximately 1,911 (2022 Census) and benefits from a scenic coastal setting, harbour, beaches and access to the wider Moray coastline.

The village offers a range of local amenities including convenience retail, hospitality, community facilities and services, serving both the local population and the surrounding catchment. It is well connected by road to the wider Moray area, with Elgin, Lossiemouth and Forres all within reasonable travelling distance.

The subjects are prominently located on the corner of Brander Street and Grant Street, which is the village's main street. The property occupies an established town centre position close to the harbour and local amenities, benefiting from strong visibility and passing trade.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects are of traditional stone construction set beneath a pitched roof. The property benefits from a glazed frontage, providing natural daylight to the sales area whilst also offering excellent visibility and display opportunities to passing pedestrian and vehicular traffic.

To the rear, the subjects are complemented by a series of single-storey extensions. These provide a range of ancillary accommodation including storage, staff welfare and back-of-house facilities, which support the principal trading area.

Internally, the accommodation provides a spacious and flexible area capable of accommodating a variety of commercial uses (subject to the necessary consents). The main sales area benefits from suspended ceilings incorporating LED lighting. The rear ancillary accommodation is finished to a practical specification and provides useful storage and staff facilities, offering flexibility to suit a range of operational requirements.

There is on-street parking and easy access for deliveries.
