The neighborhood of Edgewater is located just north of Downtown Miami along Biscayne Bay. Some of the original homes from the early 1900s survived, but are quickly being replaced by high rise condominiums. The area is growing in popularity due to the proximity to Downtown Miami, Miami Design District, and Wynwood. Along with the new residential developments in the area comes new retail concepts to service the residents.
The Design District is a thriving neighborhood in Miami that continues to expand as a fashion center and is now home to luxurious brands such as Louis Vuitton, Prada, Christian Louboutin, Chanel, Givenchy, Valentino, etc. It also houses the Miami Institute Of Contemporary Arts (ICA), as well as the artistic Museum Garage.

The Wynwood Art District is an emerging neighborhood with a multitude of vacant industrial buildings. In the last couple of decades the local arts scene has been dominated by local street artists and muralists who have repurposed old warehouse buildings into lofts, restaurants, galleries, and event spaces.

Midtown is a thriving residential and retail community built around the synergy mimicking New York’s SOHO community. With the Design District focused on securing luxury retailers, Midtown has become a hub for big box retailers, you’ll definitely want a spot here.

Downtown Miami is Miami’s bustling epicenter, packed with gleaming skyscrapers, sweeping bay views, and hidden places to explore. It’s a neighborhood of layers—decades of history overlapping and colliding; tourism destinations like Port of Miami alongside local favorites like American Airlines Arena, home to the Miami Heat; century-old buildings among new pockets of young residents who call the neighborhood home.
