Thames Valley Park is Reading's most established business park. It lies within close proximity to the River Thames, approximately 3 miles from Reading town centre, 28 miles from Heathrow, and 41 miles to the west of Central London. It is one of the premier office parks in the UK, evidenced by the calibre of occupiers, which include Microsoft, Oracle, Computacentre and Regus.

The park benefits from an exceptional amenity offering which includes a David Lloyd Gym, Costa Coffee, Bright Horizons Nursery and Ready Bike cycle hire. The towpath along the river Thames into Reading town centre provides scenic access to the wealth of amenities the town has to offer.
