49-53 HIGH STREET (RESTAURANT & TAKEAWAY)

The subjects comprise a two storey and attic mid-terraced building of traditional construction with pitched and flat roofs.

The front elevation has a painted render & roughcast finish. The larger of the two frontages, with double entrance doors, serves the restaurant whilst the smaller frontage with recessed entrance door serves the takeaway.

The restaurant is well presented with a laminate floor covering together with painted walls and ceilings. There is a timber bar server at the front, adjacent to the entrance doors, which has a beer cellar directly below. Customer toilets are located at the rear.

The takeaway also has a laminate floor covering with wipe-clean panel walls and a suspended tile ceiling. The kitchen is located behind the takeaway and is separated from the restaurant by a glazed partition. The kitchen has a painted concrete floor, stainless-steel & wipe-clean panel walls together with stainless-steel extraction hoods. Beyond the kitchen is a walk-in freezer and walk-in chill.

An overspill seating area, storage space and utility room are located on the first floor.

55 HIGH STREET (MAISONETTE)

The main section of the first floor and the entire attic floor comprise a residential masionette that benefits from its own external door onto the High Street, although it can also be accessed internally from the restaurant.

The internal accommodation extends to the following:

- First Floor
 Lounge & Dining Room
 Two Bedrooms
 Kitchen
 Shower Room with WC

- Attic Floor
 Sitting Room
 Three Bedrooms
 Bathroom with WC

A roof terrace with concrete slab surface is accessible from the first floor kitchen, via an external metal staircase.

There is however scope for reconfiguring the accommodation to provide separate first and attic floor flats, subject to Local Authority consents.
