Location

The property is centrally located in the small Carmarthenshire Town of Kidwelly midway between the Towns of Llanelli and Carmarthen. Kidwelly is a popular dormitory for these two larger Towns and is on the fringe of coastal holiday areas.

The property fronts the main road passing the town and is close to all amenities provided locally and to Kidwelly Castle.

Description

A substantial two-storey building providing retail accommodation over two floors. The unit has been extended by the provision of a rear warehouse/delivery bay, accessed from the rear carpark. Extensive retail space is provided along with ancillary office, storage and staff accommodation. Disabled lift facility is provided.

The property benefits from a large surfaced customer parking area with direct access from the main road and which provides in excess of 20 spaces.

Main supplies of water, electricity and drainage are connected to the property. Oil fired warm air blowers are utilised to heat the retail space.

Planning

The permitted use is for Retail within Use Class A1 of the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987.

The property is suitable for a variety of leisure and community uses subject to the appropriate planning permissions. Interested parties are advised to make their own planning enquiries.
